The Pat Tillman Foundation exists to unite and empower remarkable individuals who will undoubtedly become the next generation of veterans and military spouses as leaders. The seemingly insurmountable problems that our society faces require leaders who embrace intellectual curiosity, act selflessly, and lead through action to transform their communities and the world. In short, the world needs leaders who led like Pat Tillman.

For nearly 20 years, we've developed leaders from our Tillman Scholars, supporting their impact as they carry on Pat Tillman’s legacy of service beyond self. In 2023, we expanded this vision of a new generation of leaders with the launch of the Tillman Leadership Institute, which brings our values and the unique perspectives of our scholars to leaders at all types of organizations.

Our scholars continue to lead in so many areas — as entrepreneurs, as doctors and nurses, as educators and advocates for a better world. It is through the commitment of our supporters, investors, University Partners, Board of Directors and staff that we continue to equip them with the means to change the world.

MISSION

Our mission is to unite and empower remarkable military veterans and spouses as the next generation of public and private sector leaders committed to service beyond self.

CORE VALUES

Pat inspired us all to live our lives to fullest, and we’ve shaped this foundation around key principles that mattered to Pat the most.

SERVICE
Dedicated to service beyond self in and out of uniform

HUMBLE LEADERSHIP
Selflessly committed to leading by example

SCHOLARSHIP
A lifelong learner, passionate about intellectual growth

IMPACT
Determined to unite others and advance ideas that change the world
OUR SCHOLARS

Each year in June, we announce our new scholar class. Since 2009, we’ve brought more than 850 remarkable individuals into our community. Learn more about all of our scholars at scholars.ptf.org.

Andrea Baker, Army:
“As a chaplain, I desire to integrate spiritual and emotional health in ways that empower healing and hope in the lives of hurting soldiers, veterans and their loved ones.”

Timothy Spalla, Army:
“Plant medicines helped me heal my trauma. Through my Ph.D. program, I plan to study and advocate for the integration of evidence-based plant medicine psychotherapy for highly traumatized populations.”

Alexander “Gee Gee” Greene, Navy:
“Many underrepresented people are not afforded an adequate opportunity to succeed or speak about their circumstances. I want to be their bridge and their voice.”

Nam Phuong Pommier, Military Spouse:
“Fresh food is a necessity, yet it is out of reach for many. Through learning and experience, I am moved, humbled, and inspired to improve people’s access to fresh produce.”

David Galindo Castellon, Marine Corps:
“Our nation’s future is as strong as the education of those to come. As a Marine, I will continue to protect my nation through the weapon of education.”
OUR UNIVERSITY PARTNERS

These partners demonstrate strong support for their military veterans and spouses and are proud to support Tillman Scholars on their campuses. To learn more about our University Partners program, contact scholarships@ptf.org.
The Pat Tillman Leadership Summit celebrates Pat’s values and brings together the community of Tillman Scholars to network, collaborate, and develop solutions to the problems facing our country and our world. Tillman Scholars participate as moderators and presenters through panels, roundtables, and Unconference sessions.

The Pat Tillman Leadership Summit is made possible thanks to the continued generosity of the NFL.

Dave Prakash (TS ‘17), HyeJung Park (TS ‘20), Rob Hamm (TS ‘16) and Fabresha Flynt (TS ‘21) received the opportunity of a lifetime as they were selected as the honorary coin toss captains for Super Bowl LVII. Accompanied by a powerful video narrated by Kevin Costner, the four scholars kicked off the big game for the record breaking 115 million viewers.
ABOUT OUR SCHOLARS

Tillman Scholars are remarkable service members, veterans, and military spouses whose commitment to leadership through action and service beyond self goes beyond the uniform. Since our founding in 2004, we’ve selected more than 850 Tillman Scholars as the next generation of leaders, empowering them through academic scholarships, lifelong leadership development, and a global community of high-performing peers and mentors.

In 2023 we took over the streets of Tempe, AZ with a sea of green! With nearly 30,000 runners joining us in person and virtually around the world, the energy of Pat’s Run had never been more electrifying. Participants in Tempe enjoyed being sent off at the start line by former Arizona Cardinal J.J. Watt and celebrated the race’s end with the ASU Sun Devils Spring Game and a post-race Pints for Pat at Casey Moore’s Oyster House. Honoring Pat’s legacy and supporting our Tillman Scholars, our loyal Pat’s Run community continues to inspire action and further our mission of uniting and empowering our Tillman Scholars as the next generation of leaders.

Thank you to TEKsystems and Arizona State University for their continued support of Pat’s Run.

Thank You!
CHALLENGE YOURSELF ALL YEAR LONG

Our Pat’s Run Challenge Series returned with the 3rd Annual 42 in 40 Challenge as well as our Step Up for Scholars Challenge. The Pat’s Run Challenge Series exists to unite our community throughout the year as we support our more than 850 Tillman Scholars.

INVESTORS

We place the academic and professional pursuits of our Tillman Scholars at the center of everything we do, and we recognize that our investors — corporations, grantmaking institutions, family foundations and individuals — can and often wish to play a vital and personal role in supporting their journeys. In that spirit, our relationships with our partners are not merely transactional; they are an expression of shared goals and values, spoken with one voice, in support of emerging leadership. The foundation we have built to support scholars and invest in leaders is Pat’s legacy, one we never take for granted. We are incredibly thankful for your support in fulfilling that mission.
GUINNESS GIVES BACK
Guinness selected PTF as its Guinness Gives Back beneficiary in Arizona in 2022, with $1 from every Guinness Gives Back 8-pack produced in Arizona supporting the foundation.

DRAFTKINGS HONORING VETERANS
DraftKings and Madison Square Garden honored PTF’s veterans and military spouses on the ice and on the court during the week of Veterans Day. Tillman Scholars were recognized at New York Rangers and New York Knicks games.

DraftKings also celebrated Tillman Scholars through its Bet on Vets campaign, highlighting the work of Tillman Scholars Emily Balog and Kanaan Goldstein at Action Tank, a nonprofit founded and supported by scholars in the Philadelphia area.

FORD PROUD TO HONOR HALL OF HEROES

Thanks to Ford Motor Company, two Tillman Scholars enjoyed the surprise of their lives! Charles Haley welcomed 2017 Tillman Scholar Maya Herzog to the the Ford Proud to Honor Hall of Heroes, while Aenaes Williams surprised 2018 Tillman Scholar Jonathan Yellowhair. In their honor, Ford donated $20,000 to the Pat Tillman Foundation.

Pat Tillman consistently proved throughout his lifetime that he could outperform anyone’s expectations for him — and he showed it when he went from being drafted 226th in 1998 to becoming the starting safety for the Arizona Cardinals.

That spirit and tenacity is why we’ve created Team 226, a monthly membership program that sustains our foundation and our Tillman Scholars program throughout the year and brings our most committed supporters deeper into our community. Our thanks to DraftKings for their support of Team 226.

For its commitment to accountability, transparency and healthy financial practices, the Pat Tillman Foundation has received a Platinum Seal of Transparency from Candid and GuideStar.
CARRYING ON THE LEGACY OF A LEADER

Pat Tillman
Pat was born in 1976 in San Jose, California. He led his high school team to a championship after he was told he was too small to ever play football. What Pat lacked in size, he more than made up for in intensity—he led ASU to the 1997 Rose Bowl after an undefeated season. Between games, Pat earned a B.S. in Marketing, graduating Summa Cum Laude.

The Arizona Cardinals selected Pat in the 7th round of the 1998 NFL Draft. Despite skepticism about his ability, he became the team’s starting safety and broke the franchise record for tackles in 2000 with 224. However, Pat’s NFL success did not go to his head. He drove to games in the same beat-up truck he had in college. In the off-season, he challenged himself with marathons and triathlons while pursuing a master’s degree in history from ASU. He volunteered with Boys and Girls Clubs, the March of Dimes, and local schools.

In the spring of 2002, Pat married his high school love, Marie. He then decided to place his NFL career on hold, turning down a $3.6 million contract to enlist in the U.S. Army. Pat and his brother Kevin joined the U.S. Army that July, committing to a three-year term. They were assigned to the second battalion of the 75th Ranger Regiment, and served tours in Iraq in 2003 and in Afghanistan in 2004. On April 22, 2004, Pat’s unit was ambushed. His heroic efforts to provide cover for fellow soldiers led to his tragic death via fratricide.

While the story of Pat’s death may have been more publicized, it is Pat’s life, principles and service that are his true legacy—and this foundation’s inspiration.
